

Mr. SAIDOU DOGON GUIDA is a Magistrate / Deputy Prosecutor at Palace of Justice (TGI / HC) in Niamey, Niger republic with twenty years' experience in judicial, human rights and fighting corruption.

He received a Master in International and European Fundamental Human Rights Law, University of Nantes / France.

Member of the Inter-ministerial Committee in charge of drafting reports to the UN and African treaty bodies relating to human rights, and to the Universal Periodic Review, present;

Head of legal instruments on human rights Division, Ministry of Justice 2016-2020:

Trainer and consultant in human rights;

Chairman of the piloting Committee of researches on the causes of forced begging of Islamic student under 18 years old, in Niger, 2018-2020;

Speaking at workshops organized jointly by the Ministry of Justice and UNDP on the promotion and protection of human rights;

Member of the Information, Complaints, Fight against Corruption and Influence Trafficking Office (BIR \ LCTI), equivalent to the "Defender of Human Rights" in France: 2011-2015:

Attending the 39th ordinary session of the UN Human Rights Council, Geneva from September 10 to 28, 2018, as well as to the induction course for this session from September 2 to 6 organized by the PMA and PIED Fund for the participation of delegates from LDCs and PIED in the work of the Human Rights Council.

Organization and participation in commemorative activities of the anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, celebrated on December 10 of each year;

Certificate, mention Excellent; "Counter-Terrorism / Deepening of Skills" from 23 November 11 December 2020, the International Institute for Justice and the Rule of Law (IIJ of Malta);

Training of magistrates in drafting reports and dealing with victims of gender-based violence, Niamey, 2019;

Training of magistrates from Niger on Human rights, IHRDA / ANDDH, Niamey, August 13 and 14, 2018;

Protection of Human Rights, ENA, Paris, from 09 to 20 October 2017, Certificate; •

Migration and International Human Rights Law, International Institute of Human Rights (René CASSIN Foundation, relocated training session: Dakar, September 18 to 29, 2017, Certificate;

Transitional justice, Peacekeeping school (EMP) Alioune Blondin Beye from Bamako/Mali, from April 10 to 14, 2017, certificate; •

Introduction to Human Rights, University of Geneva, June 29, 2016: Certificate; •

Summer University for Continental Law (Civil Law), Université Paris 2 Pantheon Assas, Paris (FRANCE) from July 6 to 24, 2015: University certification;

Mr. SAIDOU DOGON GUIDA is affiliated to the Association of Friends for Continental Law and is a member of the National Association against Corruption in Niger. He is also member of an association promoting human rights, modern and traditional education, protecting environment and acting for rural development.

Publication:

- L'Homme et ses droits, article publié dans la revue trimestrielle du Ministère de la Justice en 2017 ;
- La corruption : moralisation ou répression ? » article sur la lutte contre la corruption, paru au SAHEL-DIMANCHE n° 1691 du 10 juin 2016 ;
- Est-ce déceler ou traquer les anomalies ?, article sur la lutte contre la corruption, paru au SAHEL-DIMANCHE n° 1460 du 14 octobre 2011 ;
- « Juridictions nationales et Cour Pénale Internationale », article sur la Justice paru au SAHEL-DIMANCHE n° 1467 du 2 décembre 2011 ;

He currently resides in Niger. He is married, has five children and can be contacted at dogonguida.saidou@yahoo.fr and dsaidou65@gmail.com).